Important Notice: Delay in Implementation of Physician Office Laboratory Testing Policy for Molina Healthcare of Washington, Inc.

Attention: All Healthcare Providers

Molina of Washington will be delaying the implementation of the Physician Office Laboratory Testing (POLT) policy until at least 10/15/2024 while this policy undergoes further clinical review.

Please review the provider announcement dated 6/11/24 for more background on this policy:

During this interim period, we ask that our providers continue to refer lab testing to in-network laboratory providers as appropriate. We apologize for any inconvenience this delay may cause and appreciate your understanding and cooperation. For any questions or further assistance, please contact us immediately.

Thank you for your continued partnership.
